Dear Members of OLP,

Thank you so much for your generous help this year in our Santa's Workshop! Thanks to your kindness, we were able to provide hundreds of children with new clothes, toys and stocking stuffers. God bless you all! Peace, Lisa and the St. Francis Staff

OLP Staff Corner

Hello to all! I am Sister Martha Langstaff, Pastoral Minister at Our Lady of Peace for seven years.

The work I am responsible for gives me a great sense of satisfaction and enjoyment because I minister to many people in their senior years as well as those who are dying, some of whom I have been with at that moment. I am privileged to bring our church to those who are homebound or nursing homebound and unable to enjoy the community aspect of their parish at this time of their lives. I bring the Eucharist to the homebound on a weekly basis and to those in the nursing home every 2-3 weeks. Both groups like to get the bulletin so they can keep up on the news. During our recent renovation, I took a picture of what was to be the final outcome and they were thrilled to be able to see what they read about in the bulletin. I try to spend some time with each one as they are not always blessed by daily visits with friends and family. The elderly do have their "cross" when their independence is diminished and they can no longer get in the car and go where they would like to go. I am grateful for my own personal experience of simultaneously living with and caring for two of my family members in their time of need, as I can empathize with what they are going through.

I also visit with our parishioners who are now living in nursing homes and assisted living facilities who have their own special needs in that situation. I think I could give a good critique of nursing homes in a number of geographic areas while serving in this position.

Our parish is also responsible for servicing the Catholic residents at Wesley Glen, since it is in our parish boundaries. Father Kavanagh and I go there once a month. I prepare the liturgy sheets for the occasion and bring the necessary items for the Mass. I also have seven parishioners who take a turn once a month to bring Communion on Sunday or Monday as their schedule permits. Now that we have our Deacon Jeff Fortkamp, who once was among the group who brought Communion, it has been a blessing as he conducts a Liturgy of the Word with Communion there on the 4th Sunday of the month.

I am also responsible for the Leisure Club, our senior group which meets once a month for a Potluck Luncheon followed by card playing for those who are interested. I have dedicated helpers from the group who join me in setting up the Gathering Place and converting it into a festive restaurant.

Finally, I also visit our parishioners when they are in the hospital. Since illness has no age boundaries, this is the place where I see those in any age group. Sometimes, I follow them through recovery at home, rehabilitation, or hospice.

A friend gave me some sticky notes that pictured a nun dressed in a long black habit, riding a motorcycle with the caption, "Nun on the Road." I truly live in my car and can tell you anything you need to know about the weather on a daily basis. Over the years I have asked for various transportation needs from two pastors, but have yet to see any materialize. I am still waiting for a sleigh, a snowmobile, a jet ski, and even a golf cart for those short jaunts in the hot summer.

Be sure to wave to me on the highway!

Sr. Martha
