Message from the Grand
Knight

Brother Knights,

I hope everyone had a great summer and enjoyed the time spent with family and friends. Our council is moving into a very busy season of activities for the fall for 2011.

The first program I would like to speak about is "That Man Is You" being generated by two of our own brother knights Ed Price and Chris George, this spiritual program is new to the diocese of Columbus and will help catholic men understand their faith on a more personal basis, as we discuss and learn alongside men of our parish and brother knights. Please go to the website "ThatManIsYou.org" to register for this event and to learn more about this exciting program which begins on Saturday September 17th in our parish.

The next event in September is a Pro-Life Rally on Sunday September 18th which commences at Delaware St. Mary's church and ends at the abortion clinic at 5888 Cleveland Ave. around 2:00PM, Brother Bob Geisken our Pro-life chairman will give us more information on how we can participate in this rally.

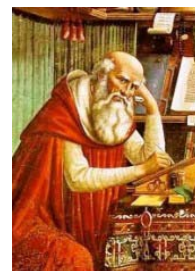

The Final event for September is our Collection for Pennies For Heaven campaign for diocese seminarians on Saturday and Sunday. September 24th and 25th with coffee and donuts after all the Masses on Sunday. Please volunteer to help before and after one of the masses and serve donuts and coffee or collect for the seminarians.

In closing you should have received my letter and raffle tickets for our October 15th spaghetti dinner, this is our first fund raiser of the year and we need your support, if you cannot sell your tickets please buy them. The first return date for the raffle tickets is Sept, 11th and the second return is September 25th. a box marked KofC raffle tickets (sold only) will be in the gathering space for returns.

As always brother knights God Bless and keep our Chaplain and Pastor Father Kavanagh in your prayers.

Joe Yonadi GK

St. Jerome Mystic and Scholar
345-420
September 30

St. Jerome is particularly important for having made a translation of the Bible which came to be called the Vulgate. As a modern scholar says, "No man before Jerome or among his contemporaries and very few men for many centuries afterwards were so well qualified to do the work." The Council of Trent called for a new edition of the Vulgate, and declared it the authentic text to be used in the Church.

In order to be able to do such work, Jerome prepared himself well. He was a master of Latin, Greek, Hebrew and Chaldaic. He began his studies at his birthplace, Stridon in Dalmatia (in the former Yugoslavia). After his preliminary education he went to Rome, the center of learning at that time, and then to Trier, Germany. He spent several years in each place, always trying to find the very best teachers.

After these preparatory studies he traveled extensively in Palestine, marking each spot of Christ's life with an outpouring of devotion. Mystic that he was, he spent five years in the desert so that he might give himself up to prayer, penance and study. Finally he settled in Bethlehem, where he lived in the cave believed to have been the birthplace of Christ. On September 30 in the year 420, Jerome died in Bethlehem. The remains of his body now lie buried in the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome.

Pennies for Heaven

The Knights will again be collecting at the church exits for Pennies For Heaven to benefit priestly vocations. The parish collection will be held after all Masses on Saturday and Sunday, September 24th and 25th. Your help is needed to stand at the doors after Mass. Please wear your KofC shirts. If you can help please contact Joe Yonadi at joeyonadi@sbcglobal.net

Donut Sunday

Donut Sunday will return on Sunday, September 25 after all Masses. This will be the same Sunday as the Pennies for Heaven collection.

If you can work after some or all of the Masses it will be appreciated as we provide this benefit to the parishioners. Join your Brother Knights. Ed Price will be in charge, so let him know if you can assist on that Sunday and when you are able to work. Ed's address is Price@yahoo.com

As Said by the Pope

"The Spirit creates joy, and joy is effusive. This, too, is a testimony that you can and must offer to people of our time, so often made cold and unhappy by selfishness."

For Your Benefit

By: Mark Mandel

Think of retirement as a three legged stool. In order to maintain balance, you need all three legs...or there is a real possibility of a crash!

One leg consists of the benefits from the government. Debate rages about the viability of future benefits, and my advice is to stay tuned to the discussion and make sure you are aware of what is planned for those benefits. Any change in future promises should be accounted for when we get to the third leg.

The second leg is your company's pension plan; either defined benefit (such as a traditional pension plan) or defined contribution (such as the popular 401K plans). Again, some of these plans, particularly traditional, are under stress. Learn how yours works and stay on top of the news coming from the company. On the 401K side, become a good investor. Teach yourself the fundamentals of good diversification and know how much you have and when you will need it.

Finally - the third leg - the one that you can exercise the most control over. The saving you do yourself. It consists of the money you yourself set aside on a disciplined basis to help in retirement. You don't directly control government benefits and you don't directly manage your company's pension plan. But you do manage your own life.

Establish a retirement plan of your own. Here at the Knights of Columbus, you can open a retirement annuity for as little as $300. Consistent and disciplined savings placed into that annuity over time can guarantee you an income that you cannot outlive at retirement. That's right - guarantee you an income you cannot outlive. That really will provide you with piece of mind.

As you ponder all the things that may not work out as you proceed toward retirement, think about the one thing you can do to help yourself. It's reasonably priced ($300 to start), guaranteed, and controlled by someone you trust: You!

Komen Gave $569K to Planned Parenthood Abortion Biz

by Steven Ertelt | LifeNews.com

New figures directly from the Komen for the Cure foundation show 18 affiliates of the breast cancer charity gave a total of more than $569,000 to the Planned Parenthood abortion business in 2010.

The donations will certainly prompt the continued boycott of the Komen breast cancer group by millions of pro-life Americans who find it disingenuous that the women's organization would partner with an abortion business when abortions are linked to an increase in breast cancer and when Planned Parenthood has been proven to mislead the public by falsely claiming it performs mammograms.

The new figures come from an American Life League study of Susan G. Komen affiliates' federal forms 990 and they show 18 Komen affiliates gave $569,159 to Planned Parenthood in 2010.

"Komen's support of Planned Parenthood is defeating its own mission of fighting breast cancer," Rita Diller, the director of ALL's STOP Planned Parenthood International program, told LifeNews.com in exclusive comments.

"In the first place, Planned Parenthood is not licensed to do anything beyond Level 1 breast examinations. It makes no sense whatsoever for Komen to give money to Planned Parenthood," Diller said.

The Komen spokesman confirmed last year that Komen affiliates contributed about $3.3 million to the abortion business from 2004-2009. That and the longtime ties between Komen and Planned Parenthood have resulted in some backlash from the pro-life community.

Meanwhile, the newest research on the link between abortion and breast cancer reveals abortion certainly plays a role in increasing the breast cancer risk.
